

Masks required inside our establishment

The Washington State Department of Health requires all customers to wear face masks regardless of vaccination status. You must be masked to enter and be seated.

Masks may be removed while seated. However, please put your mask back on while moving around our establishment.

If you do not have one,
we can provide a mask for you.

Thank you.

